The above Authorized Officer are also empowered to seek appropriate counsel or guidance as and when deemed necessary. Further, they shall provide specific and adequate reply to all queries raised by Stock Exchanges with respect to any event/information.

VIII. TYPE OF INFORMATION

Events or information specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations are required to be disclosed irrespective of application of any quantitative or qualitative materiality thresholds as these are “deemed” to be material and are given as Annexure-1 to this Policy. Events or information that are to be disclosed based on materiality principle are specified in Annexure 2 to this Policy.

IX. MATERIALITY THRESHOLDS

Materiality must be determined on a case-to-case basis depending on specific facts and circumstances relating to the event / information. The following will be the materiality criteria which shall apply to events specified in the Annexures to this policy only.

An event specified in the Annexures to the policy would be considered material if the value or the expected impact in terms of value of the event or information, exceeds the lower of the following: (1) two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company; (2) two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative; (3) five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of Company.

In some cases, inter-alia including disclosure of events specified in paragraph B of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, if the materiality thresholds as prescribed above cannot be applied, the executive chairman and the chief financial officer of the Company, in such cases, shall frame their opinion on a case to case basis, based on specific facts and circumstances relating to the information / event.

X. GUIDELINES FOR DETERMINING MATERIALITY OF EVENTS OR INFORMATION

Materiality will be determined on a case to case basis depending on the facts and the circumstances pertaining to the event or information. The following criteria will be applicable for determination of materiality of event or information:

1. All events/information stated in Para A of Part A of Schedule III to the SEBI Regulations (as listed in Annexure I to this Policy) are deemed to be material.
2. In respect of events/information stated in the table A below the Authorized Officer shall consider the following criteria for determination of materiality of events/information:
 - a. the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
 - b. the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
 - c. the omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
 - i. two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;

- ii. two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
- iii. five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity.
- d. In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) above is not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the board of directors of the listed entity, the event or information is considered material.

In case an event or information is required to be disclosed by the listed entity in terms of the provisions of this regulation, pursuant to the receipt of a communication from any regulatory, statutory, enforcement or judicial authority, the listed entity shall disclose such communication, along with the event or information, unless disclosure of such communication is prohibited by such authority

All the above disclosures will be hosted on the website of the Company for a minimum period of five years and thereafter archived in accordance with the Company's policy for preservation and archival of documents.

The Company shall disclose all events or information with respect to subsidiaries which are material for the listed entity.

- 3. In addition to above quantitative criteria the following Qualitative factors shall also be considered while determination of materiality of event/ information:
 - a. Any event/ information which directly or indirectly may materially affect the reputation of the Company; or
 - b. Any event/ information, which if not disclosed promptly may lead to creation of false market in the securities of the Company; or
 - c. Whether the event/ information is in the normal course of business or not; or
 - d. Whether the event/ information represents a significant shift in strategy; or
 - e. Any other factor which is pertinent in the opinion of the Authorized Officer of the Company.

XI. GUIDANCE ON TIMING OF AN EVENT OR INFORMATION

The Company may be confronted with the question as to when an event / information can be said to have occurred.

In certain instances, the answer to above question would depend upon the stage of discussion, negotiation or approval and in other instances where there is no such discussion, negotiation or approval required viz. in case of natural calamities, disruptions etc, the answer to the above question would depend upon the timing when the Company became aware of the event/information

- In the former, the events / information can be said to have occurred upon receipt of approval of the Board of Directors. However, considering the price sensitivity involved, for certain events e.g. decision on declaration of dividends etc., disclosure shall be made on receipt of approval of the event by the Board of Directors, pending Shareholder's approval.
- In the latter, the events/information can be said to have occurred when the Company becomes aware of the events/information, or as soon as, an officer of the Company has, or ought to have reasonably come into possession of the information in the course of the performance of his duties.

Here, the term 'officer' shall have the same meaning as defined under the Companies Act, 2013 and shall also include promoter of the listed entity.

XII. MECHANISM TO BE ADOPTED FOR IDENTIFYING AND REPORTING POTENTIAL MATERIAL EVENT/INFORMATION BY RELEVANT EMPLOYEES.

1. During performance of one's role, the Relevant employee/(s) shall be responsible for identifying pertinent events/information as mentioned in Annexure I & II which has potential to be classified as material events/information as per the policy.

Explanation: For the purpose of determination of material events/ information, the value or expected impact in terms of value for each event or transaction shall be compared with the quantitative threshold as mentioned in clause IX specified in this policy.

2. Upon identification of potential material events/information, the relevant employee shall promptly report the details of such potential material events/information in the format as mentioned in Annexure III to the Authorized Officer.
3. Any other event, even if not covered under the Listing Regulations but is potentially of price sensitive nature, must also be informed for further evaluation, to the Authorized Persons. After evaluation, the Authorized Persons shall if required issue a suitable disclosure to the Stock Exchanges.

Mode of Communication: The aforesaid details can be submitted to the authorized Officers by the Relevant Employee using written communication methods such as emails, internal memos, or any other appropriate means.

The details so submitted shall be authentic and comprehensive to enable the Authorised Officers to make informed decision/ take appropriate actions. The Relevant Employees should exercise necessary diligence to ensure confidentiality of the details being submitted/so submitted to the Authorised Officers.

The Relevant Employees may approach the Authorised Officers for seeking guidance/clarity to ensure effective implementation of this policy.

The Company Secretary/ Compliance Officer of the Company may conduct periodic trainings/sensitization programmes and/or release FAQs, referendum, framework to further assist relevant employees for effective implementation of this policy
